

Mirabilis Collective

INTERGENERATIONAL WOMEN PERFORMING GENRE-DEFYING MUSIC

Shimmer | Music, Women, Inspiration

Shimmer, the latest concert by the dynamic women's chamber ensemble Mirabilis Collective, promises a vibrant mix of musical styles. Shimmer celebrates the diverse artistry of women, from ARIA award-winning songwriters Missy Higgins and Sia, to trailblazing Western Art composers like Cécile Chaminade and Settimia Caccini.

This concert presents a shimmering soundscape where classical meets contemporary, highlighting the intricate harmonies and vibrant melodies unique to each artist. It's an evening that celebrates the powerful impact of women in music, with inspiration woven through every note and rhythm. Alongside Western Australian composers R.E. Smith, Gina Williams and Candice Susnjar, Shimmer promises a unique experience, including the world premiere of Candice Susnjar's piece, "Home." And we're delighted to feature three new associate artists — cellist Elena Wittkuhn, pianist Bridget Hutchinson, and actor Ellen Ebbs for this concert.

About Mirabilis Collective

Mirabilis Collective is a Perth-based chamber ensemble dedicated to amplifying diverse women's voices in music. Our genre-defying performances celebrate the work of female composers across historical periods and styles, spanning classical traditions to contemporary sounds and the artistry of female songwriters. The ensemble fosters a dynamic environment where mentorship, skill-sharing, and collaboration inspire creativity. Through innovative programming and captivating performances, we aim to expand Perth's musical landscape and spark meaningful audience experiences.
